

The Flock has some serious explaining to do!

by Guy Montag

There are many things which are puzzling about the current trend of mindless sheepness. For one, these filthy slaves claim to have logic on their side. They claim that anyone who denies the need for muzzles, or the need to fall in line and act like good little robots, are “science-deniers”, “selfish”, or “conspiracy theorists”. Well, if Logic was truly on their side, then I cannot make heads or tails of their belief in supporting many of the behaviors and edicts being enforced. The totally ILLOGICAL things that sheep seem to absolutely love. Today, I wish to share 8 of the worst. There are far more than 8. But I don’t feel like typing all day:

1. Convicted criminals are being released from jail due to the fear of Covid transmission. Soccer moms and grandparents who are caught playing with children in a park, are then jailed...due to the fear of Covid transmission.
2. “Experts” claim that wearing the mask does not protect the wearer. But for some unexplained reason, it only protects others if one happens to be infected. Ok, so, where is this magical one-way valve on the handkerchiefs and Hanes underwear material that people are lashing to their faces?
3. A man was recently killed in a head-on auto accident in Florida. When the autopsy was conducted, it was discovered that this individual had anti-body markers, indicating that he recently recovered from the Corona virus. And so, guess what the death certificate listed as the cause of death? Severe trauma from a serious accident? NOPE! Cause of death: Covid-19 infection! Rumors of other incidents are reportedly on record such as a shark attack fatality, skydiving accident, and drive-by shooting. Sheep don’t care though. In fact, try to point it out to one. Those things can’t even comprehend why it’s a problem.
4. Black Lives Matter and Antifa burn down cities. And during these events, there are usually thousands of them shoulder to shoulder. But the main stream media, in all its infinite wisdom, have claimed on more than one occasion that there was little to no Covid spread detected from any of these protests and riots. But hey, you had better not go to Church or a family cookout! The virus will spread like wildfire and kill your whole neighborhood!
5. Under most unconstitutional mandates, subservient citizens are instructed that they can remove their muzzles in restaurants. But only while seated. If they stand up, a mask must be immediately strapped on. So, I guess the virus hovers just above table height? Or maybe standing up makes it mad? Oh, I got it: While seated, it's kind of like Arnold Schwarzenegger in the scene in Predator when he was covered in mud and the alien couldn't see him. The virus just simply can't see people who are sitting down! Yes! I figured it out!

6. A county in New Jersey (and elsewhere) is enforcing the mask mandate by having police pull people over who are driving alone in their vehicles while not wearing a mask. Need I say more?
7. Sheep have been known to physically confront non-maskers. That's right. They claim there is a deadly virus that will kill us all if we don't practice social conditioning, err, I mean social distancing, and wear a mask at all times. Yet they apparently have no problem laying their hands on "the infected".
8. People in some parts of the country during the height of the last illegal lockdown/home arrest period, were rewarded with a $50 Amazon gift card for telling on neighbors who dared venture into their own yards without being muzzled. Sheep love being part of the Nanny State.

So there you have it. 8 of the dumbest things about modern sheepishness and sheepling. I will now leave you to venture out into the wasteland known as my community. And I am taking great risk. Because I am doing it, GASP, without a mask! So wish me well on my journey into the land of dead bodies stacked in the streets, gangs of violent outlanders, and the ravaging virus floating in the air which instantly kills to the touch! Oh wait. Never mind. That's the sheep version of how the world looks now. Disregard. I got caught up in the moment. I'm just going fishing.

Until next time,

Guy Montag
