

The Tyrant's Toolbox

by Guy Montag

In the picture above, an occupying force has encircled and burned the city of Washington. A small and inferior militia unit attempted to defend. But they were soon wiped out by the battle-hardened British soldiers. This was touted as one of the worst defeats in American military history.

Fast forward to today. Washington is not the only city burning. In fact, nearly every major metropolitan area is under communist attack right now. The previously mentioned “worst defeat”, seems at this point to pale in comparison. And it is only going to get worse.

Some say that the election will calm things down though. I happen to seriously disagree. Hopefully I am wrong. But the way I see it, there are two possible outcomes:

- If Trump wins, the factions who want him out will turn up the violence to levels never before seen in this country. They will absolutely freak out more than they are now. Murders will escalate. More buildings will burn. More lives will be destroyed.
- If Beijing Biden wins, the mob and their overlords will feel emboldened. And guess what? Murders will escalate. More buildings will burn. More lives will be destroyed.

No matter what, the situation is going to produce a great test for us all. The events unfolding before us are nothing shy of the stepping stones to Civil War.

But what does this have to do with Tyranny? An unruly mob becoming more violent has little to do with Government overreach, right?

Wrong. It's all one in the same. The very idea of County, City, and State Governments not just allowing this behavior, but promoting it, sends a strong message to those of us with our eyes open. The organized and centralized powers that are so happily guiding these atrocities, are the same tyrants who want to control every aspect of their "servants'" lives. They are in fact using the rioters as a tool to further their agenda. Its all tied together.

Some examples to prove this include the following:

1. It is a well-known fact that people are being arrested for not wearing masks in their own yards. Yet, protesters by the thousands can openly violate not just the mask orders, but mandates about gathering in large groups. And they can do this with no penalty. The same government agencies who would have an elderly couple arrested for not complying while in their own backyard garden, also praise the rioters for "standing up to racism".
2. The media has always been used as a tool of the State. In order to suppress truth or to dissuade people from thinking for themselves, the media pushes narratives that are outright ridiculous. Unfortunately, most people are so conditioned at this point by the communist psyop, they don't notice. We are being screamed at daily through the radio waves and news broadcasts to be afraid. We are instructed to be subservient, wear our masks, stand in our lines, accept complete dismantling of our civil liberties (for the greater good of course), and to just shut up and be just like everyone else. After all, we are "in this together", right? The same media outlets who instruct these draconian behaviors also, like the Government agencies they work for, praise the violence and destruction of our cities. And while doing it, they often claim these people are 'peacefully protesting'. And at times, they outright boast that the stories of destruction are greatly exaggerated. Even while the cities are burning live right behind the reporter who touts these lies.
3. The Government agencies also take great steps to punish anyone who pushes back against the state's mob. A couple in Missouri defended their home against a group of Antifa and BLM rioters. They produced firearms and stood outside their residence after the communists broke through a gate. In the video, one person in the mob can be heard exclaiming "We're gonna come back here and kill you and your f'ing dog". That threat would normally be enough to justify someone defending their property and home. But instead, the activist DA decided that the husband and wife needed to be punished for threatening people. Mind you, no shots were fired. And the cowardly commies soon left. Still, these two property owners dared to stop the mob from killing them and burning their house down. They are now facing trial. And their legally owned firearms have been confiscated. In a more recent event, a young man was accosted by a group of Antifa/BLM thugs who were obviously attacking him with lethal intent. The young man, who was armed, responded to the threat by opening fire with his AR-15. This resulted in the killing of some of them, and the wounding of another. The kid has since been arrested. And likely, he will spend the rest of his life in prison. For defending himself against foes who were obviously intent on killing him. And while these and many other examples are out there, another side to it exists: Countless acts of violence, even on video, committed against innocent people by the rioters, goes completely unpunished. Now why would that be? Oh, as far as the communist who was wounded in the scuffle with our young hero, the MSM has been claiming that the wounded did not have a gun, but a cell phone in his hand. You be the judge...

In conclusion, I would like to say this: People often exclaim that 2020 is a mess. And they are right. But, many also like to say things like “2020, we are dealing with a virus and also riots”. I prefer to say it like this:

2020, we are dealing with an attempted takeover of this nation by communist demonic infiltrators who are using fear of a viral outbreak and violence to accomplish their goals.

It's all one in the same. The evil principality that is forcing people into compliance and conformity, is also the one spreading this ridiculous violence and destruction. There is no need to differentiate. The actions are derived from the same source. We had better wake the people up, and do something about it. Unless of course we wish to make all years after 2020 become a permanent 1984.

Until next time,
